Murakami Haruki Kaitenmokuba no Deddo hito (1)

Hideyuki SAKAI

This essay considers the four stories-Lēdāhōzen, Takushii ni notta Otoko, Pūru-saido, Imawa Naki Ōjo no tameno in the collection of short stories-Kaitenmokuba no Deddo hito.

In these stories Murakami Haruki runs hard dead heat with an imaginary enemy on such a merry-go-round that where no one outstrip anybody nor is outstripped by anybody nor can go anywhere nor change to any line nor get off.

He shows the way of life of the people who were caught by such a feeling of helplessness.
