

『怒りのぶどう』におけるトム・ジョードの成長について：ケイシーからトムへ

著者	重松 宗育
雑誌名	人文論集
巻	28
号	2
ページ	A1-A20
発行年	1977-12-25
出版者	静岡大学人文学部
URL	http://doi.org/10.14945/00008656

Tom Joad's Inner Growth in THE GRAPES OF WRATH

Soiku SHIGEMATSU

- I . (1) "I'm just tryin' to get along without shovin' nobody around."
(2) "I'd do what I done—again."
(3) "I could shut my eyes an' walk right there."
- II . (1) "If we was all mad the same way, Tommy—"
(2) "It ain't kin we? It's will we?"
- III . (1) "You got a right to say if you wan' neighbors or not."
(2) "That's the only goddamn thing in the world I got on my mind."
- IV . (1) "Let 'em rot."
(2) "He's a funny fella, all the time thinkin'"
(3) "Why, we're the people—we go on."
- V . (1) "Tonight we had meat. Not much, but we had it."
(2) "Him layin' there—head jus' crushed flat an' oozin'."
- VI . (1) "But now I been thinkin' what he said."
(2) "Two are better than one."
(3) "I been thinkin' how it was in that gov'ment camp."
(4) "I'll be ever'where—wherever you look."