Material: An analysis of images from Sachsenspiegel and teaching material

FUJII Masao, SHIMAOKA Yuta, SUGITA Nozomi

“Sachsenspiegel” is a German law book in the Middle Ages. It’s known well for the colorful images that tell us social convention and feudal system in medieval Germany. In this paper we attempt an analysis of these images and classify them in order to make a teaching material. Additionally we present a lesson plan for high school world history class.
